

1972 Evelyn Aldrich

“Bouquet for the Future”

Mrs. Evelyn Lyda Aldrich

Mrs. J.M. Aldrich
“Woman of the Year”

MRS. ALDRIDGE

Maconite Is Woman Of Year

A Maconite, Mrs. J. M. Aldrich, was named International Credit Woman of the Year during the 60th International Consumer Credit conference being held this week in Washington, D.C. Nominated by Credit Woman-International of Macon, Mrs. Aldrich won district and regional competition before receiving the top honor in the 16,000 member organization. A native of Covington, Mrs. Aldrich is a graduate of Mercer University where she is presently second vice-president of the Alumni Association. A past president of her local Credit Women's Club, she has also served as president of the state association, Dixie Council of Credit Women, and the Collection Service Division of Associated Credit Bureaus of Georgia and of the Southeast. She is supervising partner of the Collection Service, Credit Bureau of Macon, and is also a partner in collection offices in Atlanta, Savannah, Charlotte, and Mobile.

