

1980 Beverly Young

Eve Bibbings, Beverly Young,
Mary Floyd, Murl Gallagher

“Enriching, Enlarging, Extending”

BEVERLY YOUNG of Ford Motor Credit Company's Tulsa Consumer Loan Office, is shown with the "Gabriel Award" she received from the National Consumer Finance Association at its recent national convention in Hollywood, Florida. With her are James W. Ford, left, chairman of the board, Ford Motor Credit Company, and Thomas A. Haeussler, NCFCA president. The award goes each year to an employee of the credit industry for outstanding volunteer service in promoting credit education to the public. Ms. Young was selected in promoting credit education to the public. Ms. Young was selected from among 800 member companies of the NCFCA, which is the national trade association for America's consumer finance, sales finance and industrial banking companies.

Beverly Young Gets International Award

Beverly J. Young was awarded the highest honor given by Credit Women International when she was named International Credit Woman of the Year for 1980 at the Annual International Consumer Credit Conference in Seattle, Washington recently.

Ms. Young was given this honor for her active participation in CWI activities her outstanding achievements in community credit education and communication for the credit industry for 1978-1979.

She has been a member of CWI since 1975. She also was honored at the Leadership Breakfast when she was certified by the International Consumer Credit Association as a "Certified Consumer Credit Executive", a certification offered by the Association for a select group in the nation.

The annual credit conference is jointly sponsored by the International Consumer Credit Association and Credit Women International.

Ms. Young has received several other honors this past year. She was named Oklahoma Credit Woman of the Year in October 1979, District Seven Credit Woman of the Year in March 1980. In May, she was

See YOUNG, Page 4

Beverly J. Young

Young Elected To District Office

Beverly Young was elected treasurer of Credit Women International of District Seven at the annual District Seven Consumer Credit Conference held March 20-22 at the Sheraton-Royal Hotel, Kansas City, Missouri. District 7 includes Missouri, Arkansas, Kansas and Oklahoma.

Ms. Young has been a member of Tulsa Metropolitan CWI since 1975. She is currently serving the local club as Parliamentarian and Historian, and is Credit Woman of the Year Chairman for Oklahoma CWI. Ms. Young was honored in Seattle, Washington last June as International Credit Woman of the Year and was Certified as a Consumer Credit Executive. Prior to receiving national honors from CWI, Beverly had been named Oklahoma and District 7 Credit Woman of the Year.

In May, 1980, Beverly received the coveted "Gabriel Award" from the National Consumer Finance Association. Each year, the NCFCA, presents its Gabriel Award to a member Company employee for outstanding volunteer service in promoting the interests of the credit industry and credit education. Ms. Young has been employed by Ford Motor Credit Company, Consumer Loan Financing, for 12 years.

Young Gets CWI Award

Continued From Page 1
recipient of the Gabriel Award given by the National Consumer Finance Association at their Annual Convention in Hollywood, Florida. The Gabriel award is given each year to an employee of the credit industry for outstanding volunteer service in promoting credit education to the public.

Ms. Young was selected for this honor from among 800 member companies of the NCFCA, which is the national trade association for America's consumer finance, sales finance and industrial banking companies.

Ms. Young is employed with Ford Motor Credit Company's Tulsa Consumer Loan Office, 5553 E. Skelly Drive.