CREDIT WOMAN OF THE YEAR

Sally Safford

The winner of the 1980-81 Credit Woman of the Year is Sally Safford, pictured above, from Washington, D.C. President Ellen Bachelder presented Sally with a $50.00 check and members of the Past Credit Women of the Year group presented her with a beautiful bouquet of red roses.

Sally is a Sales and Public Relations Representative for CBI in Washington, D.C. and is an enthusiastic member and supporter of CW-I. In her work she conducts credit seminars and presentations on credit to loan offices, bank personnel, credit unions, department store credit offices, etc.

Since 1978 Sally has been active in bringing new members into her CW-I Club, both as Membership Chairman and as President. Between October 1, 1979 and September 30, 1980 she personally brought 21 new members into CW-I.

Sally is an asset to her Club and to CW-I.
