The Credit Professional

The Credit Professional Of The Year Is Pearl Turpin

A member of the Glendale, CA club since 1967, Pearl has served twice as club President. She has also served in many capacities as an officer and chairman at both the local and district level.

Pearl works for a collection agency, Creditors Service of Los Angeles as President and General Manager.

During the qualifying year, she brought 7 new members into the Glendale club, wrote monthly articles for the club bulletin, and is working to organize a new club near Riverside, CA. She is active in credit education and in community affairs.

Pearl Turpin named Professional of Year

Pearl Turpin was named Credit Professional of the Year of District Eleven Credit Professionals at the annual conference held in San Francisco. District 11 represents local clubs from California, Arizona, Nevada and Hawaii.

Annually, each CWI:CP club nominated a member for the award based on achievements in education, community activities and participation in the organization.

Turpin has been nominated for the International Award of Credit Professional of the Year, as well as their Individual Excellence in Education Award. Announcements of the winners will be at the International Conference in Quebec City, Canada, May 25 through 28.

Turpin has been a member of CWI: Credit Professionals of Glendale, formerly Credit Women International of Glendale, since 1957, and has been recognized for 20 years of perfect attendance at their meetings.

She has served twice as President of the Glendale club and as district president.

Turpin is a sought-after speaker and has been selected to appear in the 19th edition of Who's Who in California. She was recognized by the Who's Who Historical Society for having demonstrated "outstanding professional achievement, superior leadership and exceptional service." She has resided in Glendale for 27 years with her husband Peterfield and daughter Belle.

Credit Professionals is a non-profit educational association of persons employed in the fields of credit or collections. The Glendale club is sponsoring an educational seminar May 5 at the Holiday Inn in Pasadena.

Persons employed in credit or collections are invited to attend and may call Turpin at (213) 385-3501 for details.

Pearl, to confirm my telephone call to your home last night, I hope you had a good meeting. Also, I would like to add my "Congratulations" to you as "Credit Woman of the Year". You continue to be just wonderful, and very much admired. I am sorry I cannot attend the get-together on Saturday nor the Brunch on Sunday, Dec. 15th & 16th. Please extend my thanks to Virginia and my greetings to Caroline and the others attending. Best wishes, always. Martha Jones

Peace,
Congratulations on winning the International Credit Professional award.

I am delighted for you. True is an award you have earned by your loyalty and continued support to Credit Women International, C.W.I. Credit Professionals and C.P.I. over the years.

I just found out on Saturday from Donna Kane that you received the award at Quebec. When Richard Pitman mentioned the award in your introduction on Friday at the C.W.I. Conference I thought he had it wrong and it was District's Award. I certainly would have given you an extra hug if I had known as it had been in what he said was correct.

Donna shared pictures of you receiving the award. You looked so happy and you did well so pretty.

I went to Watsonville's Bassett night on Sat. with Eugene, Suzanne, Donna + Dorothy Nelson. We had a good get together. Again, you have good.
Love Anna

IN OTHER WORDS,
YOU DONE GOOD!

Dear Pearl,
Donna called me with the news of you honor of being Credit Professional International I'm so happy for you - you certainly earned the honor. Mike & I are on vacation at his folks in Eldor. Ohio unfortunately we both came down with terrible colds - but going to Century Inn today so should be able to continue our trip. I just wanted to drop notes & say congratulations. We're proud of you & happy when you're a friend.
...IT'S YOU!
Warm wishes

Dear Pearl
Just heard the good news Donna called Betty Dunn who in return called me. So great to have someone so important in District Eldor!
How you touched earth yet beautiful, if not so you might get dizzy or are you making in this state.
After talking to you I can tell you are down to earth as you have always been a wonderful person
Again Congratulations!
Trudly
Caroline

Congratulations to you
On the goal that you have won!
You should be very proud
Of all that you have done,
And this brings many wishes
That are warm and most sincere
For much success and happiness
Throughout each coming year.
