Mary Nebeker, CCCE/MPCE

Did you know—the letters in Mary Nebeker’s name are also in the CPI Creed. So how would you describe Mary? The creed says it all.

I believe in the principles and purposes of Credit Professionals

I strive always to become more efficient.

I move forward in the endeavor of credit.

I protect the confidence entrusted in me.

I am ready to give as well as to take.

I cooperate universally for the welfare of credit.

I am loyal to my club in thought, word, and deed.

I am true to myself, my associates, and to my God.

I maintain always, “Faith, Vision, and Courage.”

Mary is the most giving and serving person. Being a member since October 19, 1997, Mary has served as International President; President of the Credit Education Resources Foundation; Career Club President and co-chair of an International Conference. She was certified as a CCCE in 1982 and as an MPCE in 2001. Mary was named International Credit Professional of the Year in 1996 and received the Helen B. Sawyers Hero Award in 2009.

Mary retired from the working field after serving 33 years in the mortgage industry as a processor, moving up the ladder to an underwriter and operations manager. However, she has not retired from our organization. Mary is:

1. Extremely dedicated.
2. Quick to volunteer when others won't even consider helping
3. Very knowledgeable
4. Successful in fundraising
5. Relentless in her support of missing and exploited children walk-a-thons
6. Dependable, always follows through on any task started
7. Has been an outstanding member and officer of Credit Professionals International and the Credit Education Resources Foundation. She has inspired others to commit to doing their best and climbing the chairs at the local, district and International level.
