She has donated items for various Walk-A-Thons projects and participated as chairman of Walk-A-Thon events. She has served as co-chair on all of CPI of Atlanta's Benefit Bridge projects to raise money for The Foundation, which resulted in Atlanta being the biggest contributor to The Foundation at the local level and enabling CPI of District 3&4 to be an outstanding contributor to The Foundation.

Anne has served on the CPI Strategic Planning Committee and participated in projects to transfer CPI information to computer records. She has also been on the planning committees for many state, district and international conferences of CPI. She has an outstanding record of attendance at state, district and international conferences.

Anne has been a speaker at local and International CPI meetings and has contributed an article for the CPI education manual. She has served as legislative contributor to the magazine and other publications.

Although retired for fifteen plus years from Equifax, Anne continues to be a strong supporter of CPI as well as an active volunteer in her community. She serves as a volunteer for Fernbank Natural History Museum; DeKalb Visitors and Convention Bureau; and Oglethorpe University. She also is a sponsor for two local theater organizations.

Anne is truly an outstanding person and is well deserving to be nominated for Credit Professionals International Hall of Fame.
